

More

September 2008

Don't Miss
DOWNLOADS
By Holly George-Warren

• IRMA THOMAS
"River Is Waiting" (from Simply Grand)
With backup from piano maestro Henry Butler, the Grammy-winning New Orleans native takes a turn at John Fogerty's ode to hope.

• JULIANA HATFIELD
"The Fact Remains" (from How to Walk Away) Hatfield's bold guitar playing and shimmering vocals energize a defiant rock song.

• THE DUHKS
"Sleepin' Is All I Wanna Do" (from Fast Paced World) Fronted by vocalist Sarah Dugas, the Canadian band delivers an irresistible lullaby with expressive fiddle playing.

• JOAN BAEZ
"I Am a Wanderer" (from Day After Tomorrow) The queen of folk sends chills down our spines with this plaintive ballad.

• NATALIE COLE
"Coffee Time" (from Still Unforgettable) Nat King Cole's daughter sings the praises of a good cup of joe, backed by a cool-jazz trio of bass, drums and piano.